The Bible lays out an enthralling picture. At least one-fifth of His Word is prophecy. The Second Coming is mentioned 318 times in the New Testament's 260 chapters. Obviously, this is not a doctrine to ignore; God desires us to know about Christ's return.

Walk Submissively

We have only a little time to work for the advancement of the Gospel, and we must use this time well. We must work, and work hard. The time is so quickly passing!

We should remind ourselves that “we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad” (2 Corinthians 5:10).

Work Fervently

The requirement for salvation is that we take hold of the truth of God's Word and give it back in worship to God. God's Word is obedience. It is because of the disobedience of mankind that God will judge the world, and His holy saints are charged repeatedly to distance themselves from the world's rebellion by “keeping the words” of the book. We are to walk submissive to God's Word.

Worship Triumphantly

Evangelism will one day cease—but not yet. One major purpose of Revelation is to remind us His only Son. He offers us joy. He offers us abundance. He offers us life. He offers us freely what God offers us. He offers us hope and joy.

The Bible lays out an enthralling picture. At least one-fifth of His Word is prophecy. The Second Coming is mentioned 318 times in the New Testament's 260 chapters. Obviously, this is not a doctrine to ignore; God desires us to know about Christ's return.

Witness Urgently

The Tribulation: Unrestrained Evil

Christ's coming is imminent; all the prophesies which must be fulfilled before His return are completed. He will descend with a shout, the voice of an angel, and the trumpet of God, the believers, living and dead, will suddenly meet the Lord in the air. Like an eager bride, the Church waits for the final consummation of her union with her Groom. The millennium is finally reached and evil rules, the Second Coming will finally come about and God's Son will dethrone the Beast.

Why Do We Do Until Then?

The Antichrist will rule wickedly. But just when it seems there is no hope, when the bottom is finally reached and evil rules, the Second Coming will finally come about and God's Son will dethrone the Beast.

The Millennium: To Rule the World

The word “millennium” simply means “one thousand years.” During those ten centuries of righteousness, Christ will rule on earth from His capital in Jerusalem. To add to the excitement, John tells us that the followers of Christ will rule with Him.

When Christ Returns

The Rapture: To Take His Church to Be With Him

When Christ Returns

Like Jesus' disciples (Matthew 24:13), we wonder what is in store for this world. What will happen? The Bible lays out an enthralling picture. At least one-fifth of His Word is prophecy. The Second Coming is mentioned 318 times in the New Testament's 260 chapters. Obviously, this is not a doctrine to ignore; God desires us to know about Christ's return.

A New Heaven and a New Earth

Although the physical properties of the new heaven and the new earth are not described in detail, what we are told is enough to fill us with hope and joy.
